

BASEBALL MUDDLE SOON TO BE SOLVED.

Whether There Will Be Eight, Ten or Twelve Clubs in the National League is to Be Settled Next Week.

Baltimore Will Not Get Out for Less than $75,000, but a Contributor Offers Another Solution of the Problem.

Whether there will be eight, ten or twelve clubs in the National League this season is a matter which will be definitely settled some time next week. The Circuit Committee, so says President John I. Rogers, of the Philadelphia Club, has been ordered to meet in this city, and then Messrs. Hanlon and party, of the Baltimore Club, will have to make up their minds as to the future existence of the Maryland club.

BALTIMORE STICKS.

Frank De Haas Robinson, the agent of the Circuit Committee, has been in Baltimore for the past two weeks endeavoring to have Hanlon and Von der Horst consent to letting their club be cut out of the league, so that the eight-club league may be established, but as yet Hanlon only says, who asked of his success, that he has nothing to say.

But despite this popular league manager's answer, to pointed questions eight-club advocates have high hopes. Robinson has had several talks with Wagner, of Washington, and it is inferred that the calling of the meeting is due to these talks with the owners of the Washington and Baltimore franchises.

As soon as the committee is ready to report the National League will meet immediately, and whatever the committee's report might be they will accept it, and then President Young will be instructed to prepare a playing schedule for the clubs that will make the league.

A POSSIBLE SOLUTION.

A contributor offers the following as a solution of the problem:

"Baltimore as it may seem, the easiest method of cutting the Gordian knot that has tied the whole baseball situation into a snarl lies within the power of a city administration. The Common Council of Baltimore can solve the difficulty in one fell swoop.

"Union Park, Baltimore, exists as a baseball ground practically upon the sufferance of the City Fathers. It straddles across two blocks, or 'squares,' as they call them in the land where they say 'you all' and 'we all,' and in a portion of the city well built up in nice residences.

"Everybody who understands the baseball situation as well as those directly and financially interested in it knows that Von der Horst is the obstructionist who prevents a harmonious agreement upon an eight-club plan. Von der Horst is an obstructionist because he wants $75,000 to quit.

WANTS $75,000.

"All he has to swap for the $75,000 is included in his contracts or options on players and an alleged lease of the grounds, except his franchise, the value of which it is impossible to fix.

"A resolution, cut through one block of a city street, already in the city map, it is said, as a street, would steer traffic through the center of the ground and make the center of the first and third bases of the diamond, demolishing the tenderloin of the grand stand as well as the whole lot out all there is of baseball facilities at Union Park."

CHAT OF THE DIAMOND

Morgan McGraw, who is one of the leading officials of the new American Association, claims that he has secured the necessary backing for the new club, while the association is to place in Philadelphia. He says that W. J. Gilmore, of the latter city, has agreed to furnish the $50,000 which is needed to run the new club.

Manager Allen, of the Cincinnati Club, has decided to start back with his players on March 5 so as to give them plenty of time in which to get in condition. The team will train at New Orleans and their first exhibition game will be played on March 11 with the New Orleans team.

The Chicago team will not train at Hot Springs, after all. President Hart received a letter from Manager Banerjee, of the Cincinnati Club a few days ago, saying that either Selma or Vicksburg would be the most suitable place for the Colts to train. President Hart will select one of these cities in a few days, probably Vicksburg.

"Cy" Young, the star twirler of the Cleveland Club, says that if the new American Association should decide to put a big team in Cleveland it would be a big financial success.

Manager Hahn, of the Boston Club, has notified Manager Selig that he has decided to quit baseball for good and to go into the coal business, which he was compelled to give up when he joined the club. This announcement from Selig will be doubly welcome to the management, as Lewis was one of the best twirlers in the league.

The following players of the Cincinnati Club have so far signed contracts for the coming season: Bob Wood, Elmer Smith, Ed. Scott, Sam Crawford, Jimmy Sheckan, Jake Beckley, Brownstein, Mike Kahoe and Corcoran.

Manager Tolan has signed Sheckan, a crack third baseman of the Cincinnati Club of the California League, to the coming season. Sheckan is considered one of the fastest infielders on the circuit and was signed upon the recommendation of Bill Hallahan, of the Brooklyn Club, who has signed to play with the champion team next season. Kennedy affixed his signature to the contract after receiving $500 owed him from last season.

Jack Taylor, the Staten Island player, who pitched for the last season and pitched for the Brooklyn Club this season, is now being pitched for by the Brooklyn Club.

Two other relay races, one in which the Xavier A. C. and St. Joseph's A. C. will take part, and the other with the Pastime A. C. and the Shamrock Harriers team, will be interesting.

Headed these events the sprint will be fast, for Arthur A. Duffy, the successor of the speedy Webers, is entered in all of them and will make a try at a new record for 10 yards.

The entries for the events have been unusually large and in the 10 and 40-yard sprints 20 are entered.

The games will conclude with a basketball game between the K. A. C. and the Drednought A. C. teams.

SIR THOMAS ELECTED MEMBER OF N. Y. Y. C.

Another honor has been conferred on Sir Thomas Linton, the man who came over here last year to "tiff" the Cup. At last night's meeting of the New York Yacht Club he was elected an honorary member.

"Spoke" Sullivan and Joe Gans will meet in a twenty-five round title contest at the Broadway Athletic Club to-night, and judging from the past performances of the men it will be the fastest, hardest and most sensational battle that has taken place this season.

In addition to the money and prestige involved, the winner will be matched to fight Frank Erne for the lightweight championship of the world. The latter recognizes the claims of both Gans and Sullivan and has agreed to meet the winner, and the Broadway Athletic Club has selected a day in April for the battle.

13 HORSES WERE BURNED.

The Imprisoned Animals Perish in a West Side Stable.

A man passing through West Fifth street about 2:30 o'clock this morning glanced through a cellar grating and saw flames in the basement of No. 47, a four-story building with hay and feed on the first and second floors, living apartments on the two upper floors and a stable underneath all.

Thirteen horses belonging to Martin Sanger, undertaker, and a cabman named Timmons, were in the stable, and in the living apartments upstairs were the families of John Sanger, Martin Sanger's brother, and two others.

When the firemen got to the place the basement was like a furnace. The cries of the thirteen horses could be heard for blocks. The poor animals were huddled in by the flames, and were kicking and biting and trying to break from their stalls.

They then turned their attention to extinguishing the flames, and after they had succeeded in doing so, the animals were taken out and placed in a stable. Twelve belonged to Sanger, including a trotter that he had purchased a few weeks ago for $750. The total loss was $4,500.

PUP SCARED THE BULLS.

Also Stirred Up the Bears in the Consolidated Stock Exchange.

A bob-tailed pup, chased and angered by newboys, created a stampede among the "bulls" and "bears" in the pit of the Consolidated Stock Exchange yesterday.

Mr. Herzog, a broker, finally caught the dog by the ears and held it while brokers howled and Gatenby tied its legs. It was then dragged into Broadway.

Dog Saves a Drowning Boy.

NEWBURGH, N. Y., Feb. 9.—The five-year-old son of George McMunn, of Greycourt, owes his life to a collie owned by Mr. McMunn. The lad was coasting near West Greycourt, when he fell into a pond. His companions ran away. The dog jumped into the water and pulled out the boy. Dragging him to a place of safety, the collie ran to the McMunn home, where he made such a fuss that Mrs. McMunn was led to her son, who was unconscious.

NOVEL FUTURITY STAKE FOR TROTTERS.

A novel Futurity stake has been announced by the managers of Charter Oak Park. It is for trotting-bred foals of 1899 or born in 1900, worth a value of which is $10,000, $7,500 of which will go to the colts which trot, while $2,500 is reserved for the pacers.

The money in the trotting race will be divided as follows: Six thousand dollars to the winner, $1,000 to the second and $500 to the third. The winner of the racing race is to receive $200, the second horse $100 and the third $50. Entries will close on March 10, when the broodmares must be named.

Perhaps the most remarkable feature of the race is the fact that the foals to be named in the Futurity are only $1.00 each. The second payment is $5.00 and is due on Nov. 1, 1900, when the foals must be described. After this date there are further payments of $10 on March 1, 1901, and March 1, 1902, and a final payment of $5 on March 1, 1903, when the foals must be named. This makes the total cost of starting in a $70.00 race only $21.00, or less than one-third of one per cent. The race will be governed by the rules of the National Trotting Association in force on the date of the contest, and will be known as the Hartford Futurity.

Decision of the Patent Commission May Stop the Sharkey-Jeffries Show.

These pictures have been and are still a paying proposition, for $10,000 is estimated to be the amount of the receipts up to date, and the paying up of this sum to the man deemed the original inventor is likely, according to several well-known lawyers.
